

help shape employment policy in Ireland

Following on from the Job Creation Initiative launched in April, I am putting an Employer Focus Group together to look at developing an Enterprise Internship, pilot program.

I have held a number of meetings with FÁS, the Department of Education & Skills, the Department of Trade Enterprise & Innovation, Enterprise Ireland, Chambers Ireland etc., all of whom are supportive of the initiative.

I am hosting this focus group in conjunction with Bryan Fields, Director of Training & Innovation FÁS and Gerry Collins, MD Collane Training to assess employer requirements as part of developing the pilot program, ahead of the initiative being rolled out nationally.

I am inviting a select group of employment leaders to contribute to the session and would welcome your input.
